Why Visit Burlington?

Recognized as a music city, Burlington, Ontario, Canada has always had a strong bond with music through its many performers and events.

Burlington Teen Tour Band

In 1947 the Burlington Teen Tour Band was formed and became known as Musical Ambassadors to the World. This music program is the only municipally operated program of its kind in Canada and offers youth an opportunity to study music and play with performing groups. The band not only performs all over the world but they also play host to visiting bands and performers who would like to be showcased at events in and around Burlington.

Sound of Music Festival

Now in its 28th year this popular Music festival draws visitors from all over Ontario and the U.S. and features music on 5 stages plus a parade.

Rotary Music Festival

This local music festival occurs in November annually and provides an opportunity for amateur musicians through competition, to achieve excellence in their art, and assists the participants in developing character, discipline, logical thinking and perception through music.
