

FALL/WINTER

Packed with great events for your group!

NOW OPEN!

Burlington Performing Arts Centre Experiences that Inspire!

Located in our vibrant downtown just steps from our beautiful waterfront and award-winning restaurants, this world class venue includes a Main Theatre for 718 guests and a community Studio Theatre for 225 people. The Professional Entertainment Season (2011-2012) includes student educational and interactive performances as well as group friendly matinee performances. Group packages available.

Visit www.burlingtonpac.ca

Museums of Burlington

The Gilded Age: In Pursuit of Pleasure Fashion in Edwardian Times Begins September 29, 2011

The Edwardian era is often seen as the height of culture and fashion in modern times. After the long and subdued reign of Queen Victoria, King Edward brought an era of exuberance and frivolity, a time of high fashion and sophistication. Come take a look! Group rates and free bus parking.

Visit www.museumsofburlington.com

Photo: Burlington Post

Conservation Halton

Fall into Nature

October 8-10, 13 and 15-16, 2011

Celebrating the natural beauty and fall colours of our Escarpment Parks; Rattlesnake Point, Kelso, Mountsberg, Crawford Lake, Hilton Falls and Mount Nemo. Featuring a variety of unique outdoor experiences including; chairlift rides to the top of the escarpment, self-guided and interpreter led trail tours, photography walks, wagon rides to the falls, live performances (music First Nations Dancers), demonstrations (mountain biking, birds of prey, reptile shows) and much more. Custom group itineraries with BBQ lunch available. Visit www.fallintonature.ca more events on page 2...

Burlington Art Centre

Soup Bowl & Christmas Sale

November 17-20, 2011

Choose a hand-crafted pottery bowl from an array of possibilities. Then, select a soup provided by one of our local restaurants. Add a salad, roll, dessert and when you are finished, you can take the bowl home! After lunch wander through the Christmas Sale to view the one-of-a-kind handcrafted items by the Guilds of Arts Burlington. This unique culinary and shopping experience is a wonderful group day activity at a most reasonable cost. Group rates available. Free on-site bus parking! Visit www.bac.ca

Royal Botanical Gardens

Doorways to the Holidays

November 26 - December 8, 2011

Featuring over 100 holiday-themed decorated doors along with numerous seasonal events and entertainment. Extend the day with a tour of the Mediterranean Garden, shopping at the Christmas Show and Sale and lunch at the gardens restaurant. Group rates available. Free on-site bus parking. Visit www.rbg.ca

Chocolate Exhibit

January 28 - April 15, 2012

Journey through history to get the complete story behind this tasty treat. Explore the plant, the products and the culture of chocolate through the lenses of science, history and popular culture. Visit www.rbg.ca STUDENT TOUR

Experience Glass Art in a Glass House

January 14 - February 27, 2012

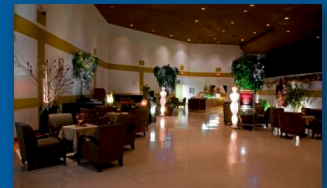

It's glass art in a glass house – the beautiful and blooming Mediterranean Garden. This fifth-annual exhibit includes an expanded display of shining examples of glass art created by gifted Ontario artists and students from Sheridan College. All of the glass-work on display is for sale; it's a great way to add to your unique collection, or start one from scratch. Visit www.rbg.ca

Mohawk Racetrack

Mohawk Dinner Theatre

Located at Mohawk Racetrack, the Mohawk Dinner Theatre room is richly appointed in soothing earth tones, inspired by the outdoors and offers a relaxed evening of fantastic food and wonderful theatre! After the show, try your luck at OLG Slots! View the new 2011/2012 evening and matinee show schedule at www.mohawkdinnertheatre.com. Group rates available. Free on-site bus parking!

No matter what size, skill or age of your group, Burlington has an array of discoveries; pre-set or custom, passive or active, inside or outside, there is lots to see and do in Burlington.

CONTACT US

For more information or assistance in booking your next group tour in Burlington, please call:

905.634.5594

1.877.499.9989

or email:

groups@burlington.ca

TOURISM BURLINGTON

414 Locust Street

Burlington, ON L7S 1T7

tourismburlington.com

